NEWSLETTER
JANUARY 1986

The month of January always seems to mean a time of new beginnings. I think it must start with the New Year's Resolution. Every year countless numbers of promises are made, only to be broken within the first week. How many times have we heard someone say that they will stop smoking, begin a diet or start an exercise program. Perhaps I should put away a dollar everytime I hear someone say I'm going to do this or that. Who knows, before the month is out I may be a millionaire. Best wishes and good luck keeping your promises.

Reflections!

UNTITLED

I sit back and watch
 Watch you on your crusade
 Trying to find happiness
 In the faceless bodies that fill the room

I see your disappointment
 I feel your heartache
 But still you move on
 "There's gotta be one here for me."

Finally the booze is working
 You've found your mark for the evening.

From the other side of the room
 You see me
 Quickly your face disappears
 Smothered by hers.

You're smiling
 But that's only your façade
 Deep down your saying
 "This isn't her, but she'll do."

Too much booze
 Your control is lost
 She leaves behind
 Your tears
 I feel on my face

I wanted to warn you
 But I couldn't
 The love I have for you
 Has fallen on deaf ears.
