GGE IS GROWING !

Yes Jane and Johnny, there is a GGE. You can rest your fears that the group is folding and those nasty rumours can be stopped.

I am very pleased to report that the General Meeting, on Feb 3, resulted in electing a full, six-member Executive. The new Executive will begin official functioning April 7 when the current Executive term is finished. During the two month interval, the current Executive will work with the new members to ensure a smooth transition.

The new members are : Clare M.
Deb J.
Karen P.
Lonny C.
Malcolm G.
Reggie B.

It is with renewed hope that I visualize GGE changing to a more productive organization. Thank you to those who have renewed that hope. I am glad that you saw a need and acted upon that need to save the group.

I look forward to continued work with GGE in 87/88. The last ten months have been a unique learning experience.

Deb J.

WHY BE A MEMBER ?

This is a very good question . Afterall, why should you part with twelve dollars of your money. Well, there are several reasons.

Purchasing a membership^{shows} your support of the organization and its goals. It also gives us financial support so we can send you this newsletter and we can run dances for you.

A membership offers you a chance to be involved in the decisions of the group. This happens at General Meetings when group business is discussed. You have the choice of receiving this newsletter and you can gain entrance to our dances for free.

Renew your membership and tell your friends to invest in the future of GGE. You can buy a membership at any meeting, any dance or request it by mail. All information is kept confidential.
